CARSON CITY:

Tuesday, March 18, 1873.

SUDDEN DEATH.—From the record in Judge Witherell's Court (who acted as Coroner ad interim in the case), we learn of the following particulars relating to the sudden death on Tuesday, near the Summit Flume Company's camp, of a man named Henry Holz: One Joseph Crompton, being first duly sworn, deposes and says: I live at or near the summit. I was not acquainted with the deceased until last Tuesday. We all live at the Summit Flume Company's camp, and all went up together to work there for said company, last Tuesday. I last saw him alive about 400 yards below the camp. We left camp about half-past 9 o'clock on the morning of the 16th of March to go to the store of Davis & Gillson. Deceased and I left together to go there. When we were about 400 yards from the camp deceased said he would go back. (He had been sick and laying off for a day or two.) I went alone to the station and stayed until about 11 o'clock and then went back. I found the body about twenty yards from where I left him—further toward the Camp. He was lying in the road, on his knees, with his head down, and was black in the face. I went down to the camp for help, and came back and took his body into camp. I saw no marks of violence on his person. Henry Miller swore that he knew the deceased some years ago on Sutter Creek, Cal.; that he worked awhile last Spring in the Crown Point mine; that he had worked as a section hand on the V. & T. R. R., and that deceased told him he drank too much while at Gold Hill. Never saw him drink at the Summit camp. He was 37 or 38 years old. Was a single man, with one brother in Jackson, Amador county, Cal. The jury summoned to hold an inquest on the body of the deceased, found that he was a native of Prussia, and that he died of heart disease or some other unknown cause.

U. S. On yesterday the Treasurer of the Mint shipped through Wells, Fargo & Co. nine bars of unparted gold and silver, six of which were from bullion received from the Crown Point mine, Gold Hill, and valued at $19,272 67—going direct to the Bank of "San Francisco and London" (limited) London, England. The three Belcher bars, valued at $9,954 30 go to San Francisco, thence direct to New York City. The receipt of bullion at the Mint for this month, up to date, is over one-half million of dollars.

JUSTICE'S COURT.—The case of the State of Nevada vs. Ah Sam, a Celestial with the propensity of appropriating the property of others to his own use, heretofore mentioned as having been tried in this Court last Friday, came up for sentence on yesterday before Justice Witherell, who gave him his choice, to pay $35 in U. S. gold coin or 17½ days in the County Jail. His friends not coming to the centre, he went to jail.

DELIVERED OUT OF GREAT PERIL.—Our gallant friend, Colonel Jake Linn, has been restored to the bosom of his family after valorously undergoing the direful perils of an attempt to beleaguer the Denverian bastille. He wears his honors with characteristic modesty and is as if he had been in a condition of complete and blissful safety all his life.

BILLS VETOED.—Governor Bradley yesterday filed his veto of the Battle Mountain and Austin Railroad Bill, the Nye and Lincoln Railroad bill, and the measure known as Beatty's Insanity Bill. These vetoes, at length, will appear in to-morrow's APPEAL if we can command space enough for the same.

PERSONAL.—Mr. L. T. Hogle, merchant, of Palisades, was in town yesterday.

WHOOPING COUGH.—This disease, in rather a mild form, prevails somewhat extensively among children hereabout.

QUAILS.—A pair of plump and beautiful mountain quails are kept in a cage at the Mint House. No handsomer bird living than the mountain quail.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Hillyer, Judge. Hochholzer et al vs Eager et al. Motion for a preliminary injunction denied. Adjourned to first Monday in April.

BAIN WAGONS.—As many as thirteen "Bain" wagons consigned to a man who is the agent for the same but who is too sweetly diffident to advertise arrived yesterday on the railway.

THE BOARD OF PARDONS were engaged yesterday considering the application for a pardon of R. B. Jones, one of the Verdi car robbers. The result of their deliberations has not yet transpired.

REPAIRING THE RAILROAD.—A force of men is at work on that part of the V. & T. R. R. lying between the Round House and the Reno switch, replacing damaged rails with sound ones, ballasting, tightening the fish joints, etc., etc.

BETTER.—We mentioned the other day that Mrs. Samuel Nevers was quite dangerously sick. We learn that her disease is rheumatic fever and that although considerably better she is still quite sick. Her mother arrived yesterday from Salt Lake. Hope to learn of her early recovery.

NO MORE DANCING SCHOOL.—Mr. J. F. Burns, who went yesterday to Lake Bigler to work at his trade, desires us to say that his dancing school will be discontinued for the present. ENGINES FOR THE SUTRO TUNNEL.—Two small locomotive engines designed as the motive power for the construction and passenger cars of the Suto Tunnel were conveyed through here on the V. & T. R. R. on Sunday. One of them was named C. W. Kendall, in honor of the illustrious deeds performed in behalf of Artesian wells, Adolphus Sutro and other projected and actual bores, we suppose. The name of the other escaped us. On the principle that locomotives should be named for the friends of the enterprise in whose service they are to be used, one of those steamers ought to be named. The gift of check—or Sutro, which would convey the same idea.

ST PATRICK'S DAY.—The Emerald banner of Erin bearing the golden harp, galore, was flung to the breeze which linger and play about the summit of the dome which caps the State House, yesterday. It was gayly surmounted by an American Rear Admiral's pennant and might be seen afar. In all respects the day was peaceful and in pleasant accord with its peculiar traditions and warmly cherished memories.

FALSE ALARM OF FIRE.—The alarm of fire which called out the engines and startled our citizens about half-past nine o'clock on Sunday night was occasioned by the burning of a brush heap by a pack of drunken Indians down to the south-east of the Orphans' Home. By the way, drunken Indians are becoming a much too common nuisance here. Whose fault is it?
